

Bloomfield

The Bloomfield Chamber of Commerce and Visitor Center welcomes you to Bloomfield, the Heart of the Four Corners. We boast a diverse culture, excellent restaurants, great shopping, friendly people and a host of businesses. Bloomfield is a celebrated vacation spot at the center of so many tourist attractions, whether it's fishing in the world-renowned quality waters of the San Juan River, exploring the ancient Native American ruins, hiking our wilderness areas, or just the relaxing atmosphere, you'll love what Bloomfield has to offer.

Bloomfield is located in the middle of an area rich in prehistoric history. The Bisti Wilderness Area has long attracted people looking for answers to our past. We are centrally located for visiting Native American sites and Indian Reservations. Chaco Cultural National Historic Park, Salmon Ruins Indian and Archaeological Park and Mesa Verde are all nearby. A visit to the historical sites will take you back in time.

The Center of Chacoan Culture

For all the wild beauty of Chaco Canyon's high-desert landscape, its long winters, short growing seasons, and marginal rainfall create an unlikely place for a major center of ancestral Puebloan culture to take root and flourish. Yet this valley was the center of a thriving culture a thousand years ago. The monumental scale of its architecture, the complexity of its community life, the high level of its social community, and its far-reaching commerce created a cultural vision unlike any other seen before or since.
